Conditions:

- Reservations:
 - Upon request, you are sent the reservation form to fill out with information on your visit or outing.
 - The reservations form is signed by the client and the Tourism Office, indicating acceptance of the general and supplementary general sales conditions
 - The Tourism Office must be informed of any modifications to the guided visit (schedule, content, number of persons) as soon as possible. Such modifications shall be taken into account subject to the guide's capacity and availability.
- The visit:
 - Details on the guided visit are stated in the reservation form, describing the general contents and assuming good mobility of the group.
 - Each guide can adapt the visit based on the audience and/or special circumstances (weather, closure of a monument ...).
 - Visit length is stated on the visit confirmation and assumes the stated departure and arrival points.
 - Late group: guides will wait one hour maximum. Visits are shortened by the equivalent lateness and can be extended to account for lateness subject to the availability and agreement of the guide and the group.
- Cancellation:

Cancellation with less than 48-hours advance warning entails complete payment of the reserved service.
No-shows: If the group does not show, all services are invoiced.
- Invoicing:

Payment shall be made prior to the outing, by check made out to "Trésor Public", or in cash, at the Tourism Office, on the day of the visit.
Receipt shall be provided at payment.
